ABOUT THE DEHUKAM LLM PROGRAM

One of the priorities of the "Turkish National Maritime Research Strategy (TUDAS) Document," approved by the Council of Ministers, is the improving and strengthening of research and education capacity in the field of the sea and maritime law. Following the recommendation of the Turkish Ministry of Foreign Affairs to achieve such purpose, Ankara University established Ankara University Research Center of the Sea and Maritime Law (DEHUKAM) in 2015.

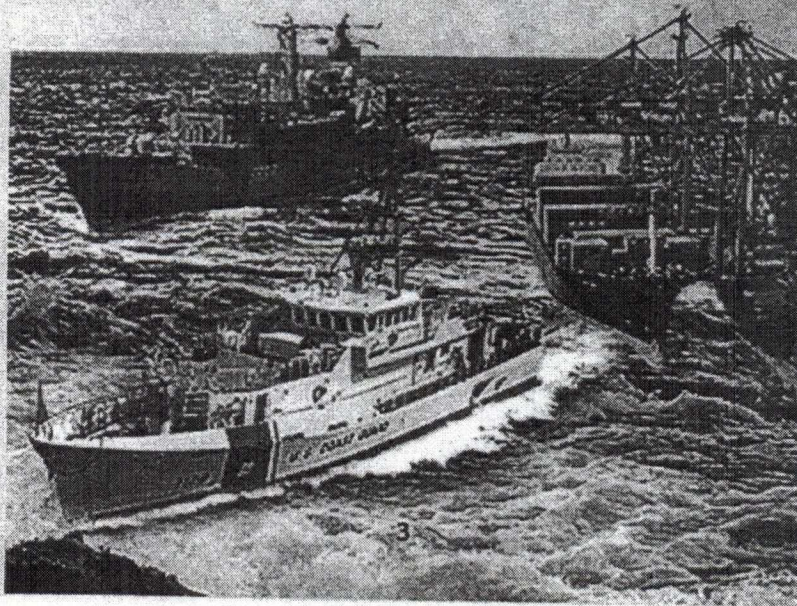

With the aim of training qualified persons to work and do research in the area of sea and maritime law, DEHUKAM, apart from organizing or participating in international symposiums, workshops and courses, and from collaborating with other key institutions in the world, runs DEHUKAM LLM Program in the Sea and Maritime Law as was approved by the Turkish Council of Higher Education.

This program provides a master's degree (without thesis), for law graduates and those from other disciplines. During the program, and depending on their performance, an opportunity to obtain a 'master's degree with thesis' will be provided to participants who qualify and wish to pursue a doctoral (PhD) degree program. For others to apply for the master degree with thesis, participation in the scientific preparation program is mandatory.

Although the program is primarily intended for evening classes, some may be held during working hours, in order to facilitate the participation of faculty members from abroad.

The Program comprises of more than thirty courses focused in three major units in the field of: (i) International Law of the Sea, (ii) Maritime Law, and (iii) Maritime Security Law. DEHUKAM's aim is to offer a program that will, among other things, enable its attendees to specialize in maritime security law in the benefit of not only law graduates but also coast guards, navy and port security personal.

DEHUKAM is open to negotiate cooperation protocols with foreign embassies in Turkey or any foreign institutions on exchanges of foreign students and visiting faculties in support of the Program.

Faculties who will deliver courses in the program will be from Turkey as well as foreign countries, with each faculty being a specialist and/or practical expert in its academic field.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

1- Students who will participate in the program must have obtained a diploma from a four-year undergraduate program, attaining a GPA of at least 2.00 / 4.00. During the program, and depending on their performance, the opportunity of a 'master (LLM) degree with thesis' may be provided to those law graduate-participants who qualify and wish to proceed to a PhD degree. For the others, participation in the scientific preparation program is mandatory to be eligible for a master's degree (LLM) with thesis.

2- Since all lectures in the program will be held in English, a minimum of TOEFL IBT 84/CAE B or CPE C score is required for non-native speakers of English.

3- For candidates who fulfill the basic conditions, an entrance evaluation will be a written exam conducted in English.

COST AND FUNDING

Foreign students could be exempted from tuition fees in accordance with a protocol to be signed between DEHUKAM and the foreign institution or mission that has recommended the students.

Accommodation could also be granted to such students. Furthermore, scholarship could be awarded to such students by application to the Turkey Scholarship program (<https://www.turkiyeburslari.gov.tr/>). The costs of foreign exchange lecturers are to be funded also according to the protocol above.

HOW TO APPLY?

Applications for admission should be made online on the website of the Ankara University Graduate School of Social Sciences on the dates specified in the 2019-2020 Academic Calendar (possibly in early June). For further inquiries and information could be gathered from DEHUKAM website (dehukam.ankara.edu.tr) and DEHUKAM's e-mail (dehukam@ankara.edu.tr).

This program is limited to 30 students. However, depending on the qualifications of the applicants, this number could be increased.
